
Title: Sacrifice

SACRIFICE

Sacrifice, the helping of others at the cost of ones own
wellbeing, enough
said! The city that claims such lack of
self want is Minoc,
the city of the Tinker.
The shrine glows a passive orange, and is located far to the east of Minoc and Vesper.
The dungeon
associated to this is known as Coveteous. It is noted that the shrine in Fell side
has shade of blue and
is covered with gold;
perhaps for all the
giving it has done.
Sacrifice to many is a difficult virtue, it means that you're
willing to give up
something that you
hold dear to benefit others. It is the ultimate aid one can give another person. It is easy to aid a person when it doesn't hold repercussion, a
true nobleman will act
the right way no matter what the Sacrifice might be.
